GEOSM GROUP

Choosing

an international medical plan

As an international employer, you face the challenge of selecting a benefit program for your employees who are living or traveling abroad. To be competitive, you have to ensure these employees receive worldwide access to quality care, efficient international administration, and full coverage for treatment while in the U.S. Most domestic plans can't meet these unique needs.

International Medical Group®, Inc. (IMGSM) offers GEOSM Group, a plan designed specifically for employers who need US-style coverage for their employees around the globe. GEO Group provides a wide range of benefits combined with the world class service of an established leader in the international medical insurance field.

GEO Group benefits include*:

- Inpatient/Outpatient services
- Ambulance services
- Emergency medical evacuation
- Emergency reunion
- Repatriation
- Maternity
- Supplemental accident
- Adult/child wellness

* Please refer to policy wording for a complete description of eligible benefits, limitations, eligibility and exclusions.

Whether you're initiating your benefit search or reviewing your options, IMG can guide you through the process and customize our products to meet your needs.

International services you can trust

Our number one priority is to provide the highest level of service to international assignees.

International Medical Group is a worldwide leader in designing, distributing and administering global healthcare benefits. Since 1990, we have built a solid reputation by providing medical security to individuals, families, and groups in more than 150 countries.

IMG focuses solely on the international market. All of our administrative functions are completed in-house which gives us greater control over the quality of our service and keeps your costs low. The IMG on-site staff includes: claims administrators who process hundreds of thousands of claims each year from throughout the world, handling virtually every language and currency; multilingual customer service representatives who ease the burden of communicating in a second language; and medical advisors who are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week for emergencies. All of our departments work together seamlessly to surpass our clients' expectations.

IMG has served over 500,000 clients worldwide including:

- Fortune 500 companies
- expatriates
- business executives
- local and third country nationals
- schools and universities
- missionary groups
- vacationers
- professional marine crew
- entertainers
